

Tourette Syndrome

ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALIA INC

Support Groups

To locate the nearest group to you email: info@tourette.org.au or call (02) 9382 3726

ALL WELCOME

The aim of the group is to help break down isolation many families and individuals with Tourette Syndrome may feel and provides an opportunity to discuss and share experiences.

Support groups have been shown to be very helpful in assisting people with TS to manage. Sharing information and strategies can be very empowering while the acceptance and understanding one can find is an additional advantage. Recent research shows that support groups have a beneficial effect on living with TS.

If you aren't already a member of TSAA, you should join as details of support groups are sent to members via our quarterly newsletter. Membership forms are on the website: www.tourette.org.au
